

Paper Title

Author Name X₁*, Author Name Y₂, and Author Name Z₁

₁Affiliation, City, Country

₂Affiliation, City, Country

*Corresponding author email: xyz@mail.ntust.edu.tw

Abstract

Please note that the Proceedings would directly produce your paper that you submitted. Hence, please follow this style guild and instruction carefully. Your papers should be prepared in conformity with this instruction sheet, and use standard A4 paper size for your submission. Submission s should not exceed 25 pages. The main content should be in 10-point type and the Times New Roman font.

Keywords: Instruction, Style Guild for Authors, Paper Submission

1. Instruction

To facilitate the conference to prepare quality proceedings, each submission must enter the paper information and abstract online. The above author information including the email of the corresponding author must appear in your final submission so as to let interested readers can contact you. All submissions, in MS-Word's DOC format only, must be submitted via the "Paper Submission" hyperlink option available at the conference website. Therefore, you must upload your full paper in MS word DOC format. All submissions must be received on or before May 15, 2016. The conference and plenary sessions will be posted on the website around the June.

Notably, when submitting your file, you have to take care the title, authors, your abstract with keywords, and the references as shown in the end of this instruction. The other format instructions are introduced in the following subsections.

1.1 Margin

The top and bottom margins for the text should be set at 1 inch (2.54 centimeters). Those for left and right are 1 inch (2.54 centimeters).

1.2 Title

The title of your paper should be in bold face, single-spaced, and centered across the top of both columns of the first page at the font size of 16, as shown in the above.

1.3 Authors

The name of author(s), affiliation(s), department(s), city(s), country(s) and e-mail address should be centered with initial caps.

1.4 Headings

All headings should be in bold face. First-level headings should be centered at the font size of 12. Second-level subheadings should be set flush left with initial caps at font size of 10. Please do not use headings other than these two types. At least a one-line space should separate these headings from the preceding text.

2. Other Guideline

For an academic paper, you must clearly and concisely address your research motivation, purpose, and background, sufficient literature review, research methodology, main research results, and contribution for the practices and/or academics. The references cited in your paper must appear in the end of your paper, as shown in the below. All submissions, in MS-Word's DOC format only, must be submitted via the "Paper Submission" hyperlink option available at the conference website. All submissions must be received on or before May 15, 2016.

2.1 Abstract

Introduce the paper with an abstract of approximately 200-400 words. Begin in the left column with centered heading "Abstract" set above the single-spaced abstract text. The abstract should properly describe the findings or arguments presented in the paper.

2.2 Body

Follow the abstract with a first-level heading that introduces the body of the paper. All paragraphs should begin flush left and right justified. Single-space the body of the paper.

3. Figures and Tables

Figures and tables should be placed as close as possible to where they are cited. First-level headings state the table or figure number and may be followed by second-level subheadings.

4. References and More

Bracketed numbers, i.e. [1] or [2, p.10] should be used in the body of the text to call references. If more than one reference is to be called at once, the following format should be used: [4] [6] [11, p.5]. Notably, only those references cited in this paper could be listed. Therefore, it should be referred to as "References". References should be listed at the end of the paper. Entries should be numbered in the order of appearance and should be with the numbers placed in brackets.

4.1 Footnotes

The use of footnotes is discouraged.

4.2 Equations

All equations should be placed on separate lines and numbered consecutively, with the equation numbers placed within parentheses and aligned against the right margin.

$$T_i = f(x) \tag{1}$$

4.3 Appendices

The appendix should immediately follow the body of the paper and precede the references. If there is more than one appendix, number each consecutively.

5. Conclusions

The above instruction is for full papers. On behalf of the conference, we sincerely thank you for submitting your good work and share your research findings or observations with worldwide scholars.

References

- [1] Plummer, J. T., The concept and application of life style segmentation, Journal of Marketing, 38(1), 1974, pp. 33-37.
- [2] Neimeyer, R. A. and Neimeyer, G. J. Advances in Personal Construct Psychology (Fifth version), Praeger, New York, NY, 2002.
- [3] Novak, T. P. and MacEvoy, B. (1990), "On Comparing Alternative Segmentation Schemes: The List of Values (LOV) and Values and Life Styles (VALS)", Journal of Consumer Research, 17(1), 1990, pp. 105-109.
- [4] Yu, C. S. Construction and validation of an e-lifestyle instrument, Internet Research, 21(3), 2011, pp. 214-235.
- [5] Yu, C. S. and Li, H. L. The development and application of a methodology for the visual presentation of business school rankings, International Journal of Information and Management Science, 24(1), 2013, pp. 1-22.